

Research in Dance and Physical Education

- Publication Policy –

Article 1 (Objective) This document lays out the rules for publishing a paper in the Research in Dance and Physical Education (RDPE), an English academic journal (hereinafter “Journal”) published by the Global Research Institute for Arts & Culture Education (hereinafter “Institute”).

Article 2 (Publication Dates) The Journal is published three times a year: April 30, August 31, and December 31.

Article 3 (Publisher and Editor) The publisher of the Journal is the Institute’s director and the editor of the Journal is a chief editor of the editorial board.

Article 4 (Copyright and Copyright License) The copyright for submitted papers is automatically vested in the Institute and any use of the papers in other publications should be reported to the Institute.

Article 5 (Fees for Publication) It charges no fees for submission, review, and publication.

Article 6 (Order of Publication) Papers are accepted for publication through strict screening and review procedures pursuant to the Journal’s review guideline. The order of publication is based on the initial submission date.

Article 7 (Accountability for Papers) Authors should confirm the final manuscripts accepted for publication (following paper review and editorial board approval) and take ultimate responsibility for the published papers.

Supplementary provision

1. This publication policy takes effect on February 06, 2017.
2. The first revised publication policy takes effect on December 21, 2018.

3. The second revised publication policy takes effect on February 15, 2019.
4. The third revised publication policy takes effect on July 23, 2020.
5. The fourth revised publication policy takes effect on September 18, 2020.